Bragi Thor Hinriksson is an accomplished award winning Icelandic film & television Director. He has directed nine feature length films, five of which have enjoyed enormous box office success locally in Iceland rivalling the likes of Harry Potter, Toy Story 3 and Avatar. His latest feature The Falcons has travelled around the globe both on the festival circuit where it took home numerous awards as well as through world wide distribution. Throughout his career Hinriksson has developed a keen understanding of the strategic steps needed for success in both TV & Motion Pictures.

Hinriksson has been awarded the Icelandic Academy Awards (Edda), five times with nine total nominations. He is a member of the Icelandic Society of film directors (S.K.L.) and the Icelandic Society of Film Producers (F.I.K.). He received the Best Director Award for The Falcons at the 2018 SIFFCY Film Festival for Children & Youth in India.

His latest film BIRTA (2021) has been acquired for world wide distribution by Studio Hamburg Enterprises and has been accepted to numerous festivals.
